

Winning Institutions in the 20th Annual Exemplary Initiatives Competition

Curriculum Innovation

“Nowhere to Run, Nowhere to Hide: Changing Campus Culture by Assessing Writing Across the Curriculum”
Seward County Community College

Organizational Change

“ASAP: The Spark that Ignited the Transformation”
Queensborough Community College

Responding to Community Needs

“Providing Access to Justice through Service Learning”
Casper College

Student Retention and Success

“Adjunct Faculty Professional Development: Small Investment – High Yield”
San Juan College

Workforce Development

“Innovation and Collaboration: Meeting Statewide Healthcare Needs Through Online Learning and Partnerships”
Whatcom Community College

“Accelerated Clinical Laboratory Technician”
Madison Area Technical College

Leann Ellis (far left) presented Cynthia Rapp, Dale Doll, Bill McGlothing and Duane Dunn the award for Seward County Community College

The award for San Juan College was presented to David Bramhall and Mike Tacha by Al Buyok (left) NCIA Secretary

Judy Murray (left) presented Bobbi Brauer, Rosanna Fernandez and Danielle Izzo the award for Queensborough Community College

Jowel Laguerre (left) presented Margaret Anderson and Linda Maier the award for Whatcom Community College

Carmen Simone, NCIA Vice President (left) presented Mary Kubichek the award for Casper College

Judy Marwick (far right) presented Abdulcadir Sido, Mary Nelson and Sue Beglinger the award for Madison Area Technical College